Annual Civil Defense Meet Attracts State Dignitaries

"Preparedness for Survival" was the theme of the second annual California Women's Civil Defense conference held recently in Anaheim.

Capt. Jane Ware, director of public information, United States Communications Corps, attended from this area.

Mrs. Caroline Barrett Pratt, state chairman, spoke on the topic "Disaster Preparedness Is Everyone's Job."

Honorable Chet Hollifield, member of the House of Representatives, spoke on "Why Civil Defense Is Important" and gave a resume of the developments at the present time.

Allen K. Jonas, director of the California Disaster Office in San Francisco was the keynote speaker. His topic was "The Road to Responsibility."

He pointed out that literature is always available at Civil Defense offices and headquarters. A program is also underway, stated Jonas, for directors to give instructions on television, radio and in local newspapers.

It has also been announced that persons who wish to receive training as instructors may attend these courses offered at the Civil Defense Training Center at Alameda.

The 1963 Civil Defense annual conference will be held in San Jose.

At Reciprocities

Mrs. Joseph P. Bay, president of the Torrance Woman's Club, attended a Reciprocity Tea Friday at the Venice Woman's Club. She was also a guest at the Culver City Woman's Club tea on Monday and on Nov. 5 at the Federation Day luncheon of the Santa Monica Bay Woman's Club.

GAVEL PRESENTATION—Mrs. John Snow, right, presents the gavel to Mrs. Marcia Carigran, newly-installed president of the Redondo Marina B&PW Club, sponsored by the Torrance B&PW club of which Mrs. Snow is president. Charter for the new club was awarded at a dinner meeting at the Plush Horse Restaurant.

Magic Show At Halldale

"Eversol, the Magician," will be bringing his magic show to the children of Halldale Ave. School on Wednesday, Nov. 21. There will be three performances: 9:10 a.m., 10:50 a.m., and 1:10 p.m. This is a benefit show for the PTA Welfare Fund. Mrs. Ralph Standridge, ways and means chairman, has invited parents and pre-school children to attend also.

Mrs. Shidler to Be Guest Speaker

Mrs. John A. Shidler (Rosemary DeCamp) will be guest speaker at the Meadow Park PTA meeting on Nov. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Shidler's topic will be "Don't Write a Book." The speaker has just written the book, "Here Duke."

Beginning the program, Miss Betty Lou Kautto will sing, accompanied by Mrs. T. Eliason, a PTA member. All parents are invited to attend the program.

To Bakersfield

Mr. and Mrs. Don T. McCalman, 1650 W. 247th St., Harbor City, and their daughter, Jerry Donna, a student at Long Beach State College will attend a family dinner on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. McCalman's mother, Mrs. Olive Adkisson in Bakersfield.
